Hospitality, Interruptions, Opportunities

One of my favourite children's books is "The Doorbell Rang" by Pat Hutchins. It's the story of a mother who has baked a dozen cookies for her two children, who look forward to six cookies each, and declare them to smell and look "as good as Grandma's". "No-one makes cookies like Grandma!" exclaims the mother, as the doorbell rings. This is the refrain of the story, as each ring of the doorbell brings more people to share the cookies. Each new arrival thinks the cookies look and smell as good as Grandma's. Everyone looks a bit dismayed by the final ring of the doorbell, as by now there are only enough cookies for everyone to have one, but....the last 'guest' is Grandma...with a whole tray of cookies for everyone to share!

There's a lot to like about this story. It's a little parable about hospitality, and generosity, and the pictures show a warm inclusive family ready to open their home to all their friends, even if the children get a little more despondent with each division of the cookies into smaller lots! But what I like most about it is its message that interruptions are not irritating distractions to what we'd like to be happening. Instead, they are to be welcomed and embraced. The mother in the story answers each ring of the doorbell with a smile and a welcome.

It was the same kind of welcome that greeted a group of women who dropped in to Gisborne's Muffins'n'More in May. They were visiting Gisborne for the day, and had seen that the church was open. As the people kept arriving, the good folk of Gisborne brought out more and more plates of morning tea (fortunately left over from the fashion parade the day before), and poured more and more cups of tea and coffee. Warm conversations began, despite some language difficulties at times, and hospitality abounded. With the sewing going on in the other half of the hall for Days for Girls, a warm buzz filled the air.

When people interrupt our day, it can throw us off balance, agitate us, spoil our ideas of what we might have planned as something 'perfect'. They can get in the way of where we think we are heading and when. We can think that they are taking something away from us. On the other hand, they can bring gifts and opportunities to find resources we didn't know we had. They can lead us into new territory and show us what we didn't know was possible. In the time I've spent with you in the Partnership, I'm trying to learn that each 'interruption' to the plans I've made carries with it the potential for meeting God in a new way. It's a challenge, sometimes, to "go with the flow", but I think it's something I'm appreciating more and more. In each new ring of the doorbell (or, more usually, the phone), there's something to look forward to. There are lessons to be learned about what is important, and how the things we might think are urgent can sometimes wait a little longer.

During these 40 days leading up to the anniversary of the Uniting Church, I'm hoping that the emphasis we've placed on prayer is helping us all to see a glimpse of this as well. As God knocks on the door and we invite God in, let's be prepared to be interrupted, and perhaps have our lives shaken up. I know that when prayer hasn't been a priority for me, I have lost some of the sense of the presence of God in all things – the interruptions as well as my plans. Let's continue to deepen our prayer life together, waiting to hear from God in new and different ways. May we be surprised and delighted by God's interruptions to our carefully laid plans as we continue to journey together.

News from Tylden

Concert Thanks

Thank you to everyone in the partnership and to many friends who supported our concert at the Kyneton Uniting Church. Thank you for all the help either prior to and/or on the day or by being part of a wonderful audience. We have had very positive feedback from many who attended, some travelling from as far away as Rosebud and the city. The afternoon tea was delicious, thank you to all who contributed food, many of you just popped it on the table. From the takings on the day a donation of $600 was sent to Save the Children Australia for an area of work deemed most critical. We have asked that they let us know where they choose. An additional amount of $120 was added to a sum that the Tylden Uniting Church had elected to send to the Queensland Flood Appeal. We thank Malcolm once again for all the effort in making such a concert possible.

Wednesday Evening Service

Our first evening service was held on Wednesday 17th May and was well supported by the congregation feasting and "fellowshipping" together. The next on will be on 14th June at 7pm. We have moved into the hall for Winter so it is very cosy. All are welcome.

News from Gisborne

Fashion Parade

A crowd of more than 70 attended the annual Fashion Parade, organised by the UCAF in cooperation with Kay's Fashions. Our renovated building is proving very suitable for functions like this, as well as for concerts and other groups.

UCA 40th Celebration

Gisborne looks forward to hosting the Partnership's southern congregations on Sunday 25th June for the celebration of the 40th Anniversary of the Uniting Church. Arrangements for a luncheon after the service will be notified soon.

Partnership in Print June 2017

Library

Books of real quality have been donated to the church library in recent weeks. A list of all books in the library will be released and a system will be devised for delivering books to people in the Partnership who live at a distance from Gisborne. Our thanks to Gwynne Klaassen who has worked very hard on the library for many months.

Kyneton Garage Sale

The Monster Garage Sale which was held on Saturday 20th May was very successful given the change of date and the inclement weather. A big thank you to all who came to help set up, buy and sell. Be ready to come to the next big sale on the second Saturday in August.

Coco Report

for Meeting held on Saturday 6th May 2017 at Riddells Creek UC

Chairperson Colin welcomed us.

Devotions - Peter led the devotions. He talked to us about the importance of prayer. He had us walk the Labyrinth and focus on reflecting on the community and not ourselves.

We also prayed for Wendy, Shane and family as they support Tim through this difficult time.

Minutes of previous meeting were accepted.

Ministers' Report

Peter did the Ministers' Report this month. Wonderful to have so many attend the Partnership 5th Sunday service. He was pleased so many helped to make the Labyrinth a reality. Special mention to Bev and Paul Gilbertson and David Liebich. Mentioned how Services were received over the Easter Week – what worked and what didn't. Peter is now able to put some things on the Website – contact him if you need anything to go on or be updated. Peter will be running Services at The Oaks – would welcome assistance if anyone is able to be involved.

Peter attending a National Mission Pioneer Gathering toward the end of May, then taking holidays at the beginning of July. Annette taking holidays and attending a conference from the end of July to mid August.

Annette then explained the Forty Days of Prayer leading into the celebration of the UCA Fortieth Anniversary. Worship to be focussed on prayer. Annette thinking of ways of having a Prayer Time each day – meet when we are able.

Peter also mentioned Congregations may need to consider budgeting for Lay Leaders to attend Conferences etc.

Strategic Planning

- Turnaround Church Book – a good tool for understanding Fresh Expressions.
- Rose Broadstock had identified a number of individual hopes – Growth, and growth of young families etc, mission in the local community, openness to change etc.

- Keith Hallett – wondering if we could identify issues in the Community – bullying, family breakdowns etc and help to address these as a Partnership project. Colin thought we could work out how to make the Church a place to assist people with the stresses of life.

Reports

- Treasurer's Report tabled.
- Fresh Expressions Riddells Creek – Books arriving for the Book Exchange to be operated in conjunction with the Neighbourhood House. Plans for it to be open on Wednesdays when up and running. Need good, modern novels and childrens' books. Kicked around a few names for it. Agreement to be made between us and the Neighbourhood House.
- Congregation Reports – Most going well – see promotions for things happening around the Partnership in Partnership In Print or the Website. Woodend still having problems getting the Church building up to standard – this has led to leadership problems. The Church Council will continue to look at options. Keep Woodend close in our prayers.
- Catering was mentioned – can be a problem if for a large funeral etc – Chaplaincy may be able to assist if we are unable to provide this service.

Business Arising from the Minutes

- Banner - Woodend Group (Design Obsession) to sort out the Banner – someone suggested another business as well.
- Meeting Protocol to be prioritised.
- PIP Distribution mentioned – Hard copy or on-line. Look at how many hard copy versions are needed for each Congregation. Advise Jay of changes in Leadership positions etc so that information in PIP is current.

- Simpson Bequest for a Partnership Camp, probably in the Spring – venue being checked out. Many Reps. had suggestions.
- No word yet on permission for Jay to do Communion.

Our next Meeting is at Sutton Grange on 3rd June – we hope to prioritise the Church Camp, Fresh Expressions – Turnaround Church, Pastoral Care and mission to the local community.

Kyneton Uniting Church Op Shop turning 50

The Kyneton Uniting Church Op Shop is celebrating its 50th year of dedicated service and assistance to the community later this year (2017).

Began by the former methodist Church in 1967 when Betty Baeck (Gloster) saw the need and approached Brian Devenport, a member of Church council. Together they took it to church council and after a fight to get it through, permission was given to see how it went for 12 months.

The shop began in High St with 10-12 volunteers. It operated there for 13 years until it moved to 6 Market St. After 28 years there the Op Shop moved, in 2008, to the present location at 22 Market St. They now have 88 volunteers.

2nd location - 6 Market St

Present location - 22 Market St

They will be celebrating their 50 years on Sunday 6th August 2017. There will be a special church service in the Kyneton Uniting Church, 54 Ebdon St, Kyneton at 10:30am. A light lunch will be followed by music in the church. A display of memorabilia is being organised. Anyone who has been connected to the Op Shop and would like to attend, or has items for display, contact Flo on 5422 2996
